

August 31, 2019

$15,000 Donated to El Paso Victims' Fund

The Southwest Association of Nigerian Physicians has donated $15,000 to the El Paso Shooting Victims' Fund.

EL PASO, Texas – In wake of the devastating El Paso shooting on Aug. 3, the Southwest Association of Nigerian Physicians (SANP) is giving $15,000 to assist victims and families of those affected by the massacre.

The Southwest Association of Nigerian Physicians is an association of physicians of Nigerian descent practicing in El Paso and Las Cruces. Members of the SANP presented the gift to the El Paso Community Foundation Shooting Victims' Fund on Wednesday, Aug. 28.

In expressing condolences to the victims and their families, SANP President Dr. Emmanuel Anekwe said, "We in the SANP have made El Paso our home; we are a testament to the welcoming and loving nature of El Paso and we will do all in our power to ensure this sad event does not define El Paso."

#

About the Southwest Association of Nigerian Physicians:

The Southwest Association of Nigerian Physicians (SANP) is made up of a group of hardworking, vibrant, community-minded professionals dedicated to providing patients with the highest level of care here in the border region. With over 50 physician members, the SANP is one of the largest non-profit medical organizations in the southwest United States. Individually, SANP members provide high-acuity, quality health care to thousands of individuals and families living in El Paso, Las Cruces, and beyond. Learn more at swanp.org.

Media Contact: Ogechika Alozie, MD, sanp@southwestanp.org
915-996-1202